

Now is the ideal time to plan your school's customized professional development!

Let's connect so we can learn more about your PD needs! Drop us an email at info@innovageous.com, or touch base with one of our founding partners.

Here's what educators are saying about us!

"The desire for my staff and students to succeed was evident in the sessions Innovageous designed for my school. They are dedicated and caring professionals who work tirelessly to provide fun, engaging, and relevant sessions for staff."

- Charter School Principal

"Innovageous really make sure to engage you in the presentation rather than just present information to you. They give plenty of opportunities for clarifying questions and group discussion."

- Elementary Teacher

"It's always enjoyable when I find out that Innovageous is covering one of our PD sessions!"

- High School Teacher

Customized & focused topics for all staff, including:

-  High quality instructional practices to reach all students
-  Culturally responsive mindsets and actions across the school
-  Specially designed instruction & SPED compliance best practices
-  Building positive school cultures & community connections
-  Integrating career readiness standards & preparing students for post-secondary success
-  Developing MTSS for academics, SEL & behavior
-  Leading effective school operations
-  Staff team building and wellness

What you can expect from professional learning with us:

-  Live in-person and virtual session options
-  Multiple pathways for staff with various roles
-  Flexible in-service asynchronous opportunities
-  Interactive resource toolkits for sustainable implementation
-  Follow up reflection protocols for leaders
-  Real time intentional coaching